Brittany Brown

Human Resources Manager

Brittany Brown is the HR Manager in the Operations department of Astyra. She enjoys working for Astyra and says she could not see herself with any other company.

Ms. Brown is a native of Culpeper, Virginia, and a graduate of Virginia State University, where she received her Bachelor's of Science degree in Psychology.

Big Sister mentor, former Relay For Life Chair, and Student Ambassador are just a few things that Ms. Brown participated in during her time at Virginia State.

Ms. Brown likes to think of herself as outgoing and someone who is fun to be around, but knows when it's time for business.

In her leisure, she enjoys good eats, shopping, and spending time with family and friends.
