

Brenna Biggs

Account Manager Team Lead

Brenna Biggs started her career journey at Virginia Commonwealth University, where she studied Mass Communications and received her Bachelors of Science in 2015.

During college Ms. Biggs interned for a local Richmond business and a local Virginia Beach retailer, where she learned the ins and outs of social media, event planning, and communications and marketing.

After graduation, she began working in downtown Richmond for a well-known restaurant as an Event Coordinator and Assistant Manager. She was in constant communication with new and old clients and learned that she loved the people and places of Richmond, VA. Now, Ms. Biggs is a valued member of Astyra's Account Management team, and thoroughly enjoys her role because of her gift of the gab, attention to detail, and professionalism with clients and contractors.

She enjoys spending most of her day meeting and connecting with clients, checking in on contractors, and monitoring job activity so Astyra can stay ahead of the curve.
