

Ja'nay Brundidge

Account Manager

Ja'nay Brundidge joined Astyra after graduating from Old Dominion University where she studied Business Management & Marketing. At Old Dominion she was a member of ODU LeADERS and ODU LEAD Mentor program.

With over 14 years of a variety of customer service roles, Ms. Brundidge is good at client-facing and satisfaction because she understands the importance of putting people first. She specializes in problem-solving, performance management, and marketing communication. Before beginning her role at Astyra, Ms. Brundidge developed into a Business Consultant helping Small Business owners and Entrepreneurs with business management planning.

Ms. Brundidge has also volunteered with a few non-profit organizations to assist with management plans, as well as assist several entrepreneurs with business start-up.

In her free time, she maintains a business management blog, enjoys reading, loves to cook, and most importantly spends most her time with her family.
