

Lee Lafland

Account Manager

Lee Lafland is part of the Account Management team at Astyra and handles many of the day-to-day contractor communications, ingoing and outgoing.

Lee graduated summa cum laude from Virginia Commonwealth University with a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Linguistics. Their background is diverse, including teaching, administrative assistance, customer service, and restaurant management. They have taught ESL/EFL in the United States and elsewhere.

One of Lee's greatest goals is to serve in a position they can leverage to help people get to where they want to go, be this through education, employment, or improvements in quality of life. They aim to provide personable, compassionate assistance and a listening ear to everyone they work with.

In their free time, Lee enjoys reading, cooking, and learning everything they can fit it in their brain, be it immediately useful or otherwise.
