

Zina Lofton

Human Resources Generalist

Zina Lofton joined Astyra's Operations Department in the early part of 2023. She is an invaluable part of the Operations team, handling the on-boarding of new hires and payrolling of our employees.

Zina has been in the Human Resources field for four years. During the last four years she assisted with different areas within the HR field, ranging from recruiting and on-boarding to training.

Zina graduated with honors (Cum Laude) from Virginia State University with a Bachelor of Science degree, with a concentration in Marketing.

Initially undecided about her career path, once she discovered Human Resources, she instantly knew this field was for her. Zina has enjoyed seeing the excitement of candidates moving forward in their career paths and knowing that she helped make the process as easy and smooth for them is always a good feeling.

In her spare time, she enjoys traveling to new places and enjoying the different cultures around the world. Zina has visited 7 different locations outside of the country and many of the states within. Zina loves food, cooking, and she often tries a new restaurant weekly to expand her palate and explore some of the best food around.
